KAILASH is an independent, interdisciplinary scholarly journal devoted to the Himalayan studies with special emphasis on the social and cultural aspects of the kingdom of Nepal. Started in 1973 and published by Ratna Pustak Bhandar, Kathmandu, the journal has completed more than two decades of its services. During these years, the periodical has made significant contributions to the enrichment of the knowledge of the region by publishing top class, research articles by several Nepalese as well as foreign scholars.
