3Di Model of the Hovingham Angel Frieze. An 8th Century sculpted stone part of a shrine or tomb, formerly incorporated in the external wall face of hovingham Church and thus damaged through erosion. Model created using a Sony RX100 from images gathered in RAW format. Model is incomplete at the right hand edge. Use the Mouse buttons to rotate and zoom into the Model.