Thesis (the "Work") Title:

University of Cambridge institutional repository DEPOSIT LICENCE AGREEMENT

This document constitutes permission to deposit, archive and preserve and make my submission (the Work) available in the University of Cambridge institutional repository, <https://www.repository.cam.ac.uk/>, of the Cambridge University Library.

Licence Grant. By agreeing to the following Licence terms:

- I (the author/s, copyright owner or agent) confirm the deposit of the Work in the University of Cambridge (the "University") institutional repository or any successor repository based at the University (the "Repository"), or hereby grant to the University the right to deposit the Work in the Repository on my behalf; and
- I grant to the University a non-exclusive, worldwide, perpetual and royalty-free licence to reproduce and make the Work available for permanent archiving and for public access in the Repository under the terms of this Licence and any licence or other terms that I may specify in the Repository deposit submission process and/or that the Work may be tagged with or as otherwise indicated in the Repository.

Depositor Warranties. I represent and warrant that:

- I have the full power and authority to enter into this Agreement and am duly authorised by all rights holder/s in the Work to deposit or authorise the deposit of the Work and grant the licence in this Agreement;
- the Work is original work and does not, to the best of my knowledge, infringe the intellectual property rights, including copyright, of any third party;
- third party material included in the Work is clearly identified and acknowledged and sufficient and appropriate permissions have been secured for the third party copyright material to be reproduced and made available on corresponding licence terms in the Repository; and
- the grant of rights in this Agreement does not constitute a breach of any other agreement, publishing or otherwise, including any confidentiality or publication restriction provisions in sponsorship or collaboration agreements governing my research or work (or that of those who have authorised me to grant rights given in this Agreement on their behalf) at the University or elsewhere.

University Rights. I agree that the University:

- may translate the Work into any medium or format for the purposes of archiving, preservation and migration of the Work in the Repository;
- may apply metadata elements or documentation to the Work;
- will exercise reasonable endeavours to preserve the physical integrity of the Work, but shall incur no liability for loss or damage to the Work;
- will not be under any obligation to take legal action on behalf of the Work's author/s or other rights holders related to any intellectual property rights in the Work;

UNIVERSITY OF CAMBRIDGE

University Library

- retains the right to remove the Work from the Repository without notice for professional, administrative or legal reasons. Upon such an occurrence the metadata record indicating storage of the Work in the Repository may remain visible in perpetuity; and
- asserts ownership, unless otherwise stated, in any additional data, user guides, software and documentation created by the University to assist Repository depositors and end-users.

The Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999. The Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 shall not apply to this Agreement and nothing in this Agreement shall confer or purport to confer on or operate to give any third party any benefit or any right to enforce any term of this Agreement, save for the author/s of a Work if deposited in the Repository on their behalf.

Governing Law and Jurisdiction. This Agreement and all questions of construction, validity and performance under this Agreement shall be governed by English law and subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English courts.

I agree to the above 'University of Cambridge institutional repository DEPOSIT LICENCE AGREEMENT':
