A problem in deductive reasoning designed by Paul Lane & Andrew Dawson.

From the information provided can you match the archaeologist with their topic, their artifact and their publication?

Clues:
1. The article on state formation dealt with archaeology or about pottery.
2. neither Brainway nor Binford wrote on coirns.
3. the article on state formation dealt with archaeology or about pottery.
4. Hodder dealt with bones, but it was not concerned with either.
5. Flannery did not write about Times was not published in the financial
6. The article in Marxism Today.
