

UNIVERSITY OF
CAMBRIDGE
Cambridge University Libraries

OSC
Office of Scholarly Communication

OPEN ACCESS MONOGRAPHS: FROM POLICY TO REALITY

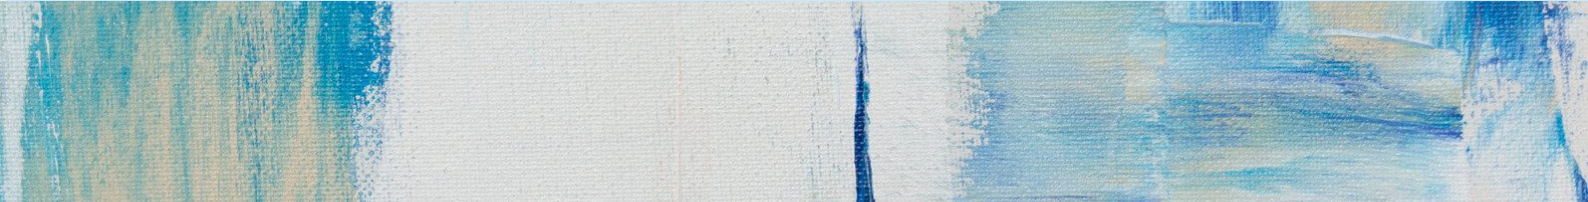

A one-day symposium

Wed 2 Oct 2019

St Catharine's College, McGrath Centre, Cambridge

@CamOpenAccess

#OAmonographs19

09:00 - 09:30: Registration, coffee

09:30 - 09:40: Welcome

Dr Jessica Gardner (University Librarian and Director of Library Services, Cambridge University Libraries)

09:40 - 13:00

Part one: Policy and practice (history, policy and economics)

09:40 - 10:30: Prof Martin Paul Eve (Birkbeck, University of London)

'The economics and political-economics of open access monograph publishing'

Questions to follow

10:30 - 11:05: Dr Nicola Kozicharow (University of Cambridge)

'Open research publishing in the humanities'

Questions to follow

~ 11:05 - 11:30: Break ~

11:30 - 12:00: Prof Margot Finn (President of the Royal Historical Society)

'Perspectives from the Royal Historical Society'

12:00 - 13:00: Panel discussion and questions from the audience

'Policy and practice: Moving towards Plan S and REF'

Chair: Dr Steven Hill (Director of Research, Research England)

Panel: Prof Martin Paul Eve (Birkbeck, University of London),

Prof Margot Finn (President of the Royal Historical Society), Hannah Hope (Open Research Coordinator, Wellcome Trust), Prof Roger Kain (School of Advanced Study, University of London & Chairman of the UUK OA Monographs Group)

~ 13:00 - 14:00: Lunch ~

Open monograph publisher stands for attendees to explore

Cambridge University Press, Radical Open Access, ScholarLed Publishers, Springer Nature, UCL Press

14:00 - 17:00

Part two: Experiences and innovations

14:00 - 15:35: Perspectives from Cambridge University Press

Ben Denne (Director of Publishing, Academic Books, CUP)

'Researchers' perspectives on the purpose and value of the monograph: Survey results 2019'

Matt Day (Head of Open Research Policy & Partnerships, Publishing, CUP)

'Definitions of open?'

Helen Barton (Commissioning Editor for Linguistics, Books, CUP)

'Open Access monograph publishing: Benefits and challenges'

Chris Harrison (Publishing Development Director, H&SS Books, CUP)

'Sharing Knowledge is Cool: OA experiments in context'

Questions to follow after each presentation

~ 15:35 - 15:55: Break ~

15:55 - 16:40: Panel discussion and questions from the audience

'Innovations in open monograph publishing'

Chair: Patricia Killiard (Deputy Director, Academic Services, Cambridge University Libraries)

Panel: Janneke Adema (The Radical Open Access Collective/Coventry University), Ben Denne

(Director of Publishing, Academic Books, CUP), Dr Rupert Gatti (Trinity College/Faculty of Economics/Open Book Publishers), Rosalind Pyne (Director, Open Access Books, Springer Nature),

Lara Speicher (Head of Publishing, UCL Press)

16:40 - 16:55: Reflections of the day

Dr Rupert Gatti (Trinity College/ Faculty of Economics/ Open Book Publishers),

Dr Steven Hill (Director of Research, Research England),

Prof Roger Kain (School of Advanced Study, University of London & Chairman of the UUK OA Monographs Group), Dr Helen Snaith (Senior Policy Advisor, Research England)

16:55 - 17:00: Closing remarks

Niamh Tumelty (Head of Research Services and STEMM Libraries, Cambridge University Libraries)

~ 17:00 - 17:45: Wine reception ~

Join the conversation

Janneke Adema @Openreflections @RadicalOA
Helen Barton @CUPAcademic
Matt Day @CUPAcademic
Ben Denne @CUPAcademic
Prof Martin Paul Eve @martin_eve
Prof Margot Finn @RoyalHistSoc
Dr Jessica Gardner @CamUniLibrarian
Dr Rupert Gatti @rupertgatti
Chris Harrison @CUPAcademic
Dr Steven Hill @stevenhill @ResEngland
Hannah Hope @hjhope
Prof Roger Kain @BritishAcademy_ @SASNews
Patricia Killiard @p_killiard
Rosalind Pyne @rospyne @SN_OABooks
Dr Helen Snaith @Helen_snaith @ResEngland
Lara Speicher @UCLpress
Niamh Tumelty @niamhpage
St Catharine's College @catz_cambridge

#OAmonographs19

@CamOpenAccess

UNIVERSITY OF
CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Libraries

OSC

Office of Scholarly Communication