
On fo. 1 is Caninus de Longi’s (2) canonicus Leodiumis me probet, and (in another hand) Nunc est Caninus Tomoedit. The letter was donated to the St. Peter’s, Loug in 1583 (E. Ancelot, Inscriptio des Charles de St. P. à Loco, Brussels 1906, p. 63 xii). Later, preserved at fo. 13 f. and N. 15 f. The letter with initial of C. (f. 13 f). Subsequently, the from 1533 and 1536, belonged to Richard Herber, and was lot 1170 in his sale 17 Dec. 1936, for £39.5. 10s. 10d. for Sir Thomas Phillipps. Phillipps nos. 8453, and was lot 863 in the sale at Sotheby’s 29 April 1903, sold for £3, 15. 5s. B. Dobell, antiquarian of whom it was purchased 30 Jan. 1904.

1 do not find Caninus de Longi as editor, nor at Philibert’s in 167. Thwaites’ notice of 1874 is equally.
