

ON THE EDGE OF THE ANTHROPOCENE?

MODERN CLIMATE CHANGE AND THE PRACTICE OF ARCHAEOLOGY

Archaeological Review from Cambridge

The Archaeological Review from Cambridge (ARC) is a biannual journal of archaeology. It is run on a non-profit, voluntary basis by postgraduate research students at the University of Cambridge.

Although primarily rooted in archaeological theory and practice, the ARC increasingly invites a range of perspectives with the aim of establishing a strong, interdisciplinary journal which will be of interest in a range of fields.
