

3023 REGISTRUM BREVIUM

Vellum, $5\frac{1}{4} \times 4$ in., 126 ff (numbered in Roman by a xvcent. hand), single column, 24 lines to a page. Xivcent. small and current, with paragraph marks alternately in red and blue. On f1 an initial in red and blue with conventional foliage filling and a partial serrated border. a - p⁸ q⁶; catchwords. Xixcent. morocco, blind tooled.

2^o f^o ad ipsum

1 - 126^b REGISTRUM BREVIUM, temp. Edw. II, beginning with De recto ballivis patens and ending with De seissina habenda post annum et diem. 124 - 125, 126 blank. 125^b. The proverb (xvii) Qui vadit plane vadit sane (Walther, Prov. 24888) Willerby (xv/xvi). 126^b. Scribbles, mostly erased, including ^(xv) Iste tiber constat ---, followed by Qui hunc librum fure per column pendere debet. The verses (xv/xvi) Vir validus iustus largus liberalis electus / limine mundatus virtute sanctificatus. Will elmus (Walther, Carm. 20428). Followed by W. Nansan.

Bought of H. T. Wake, Fritchley, Derby, January 1891.